20th November 2020

Galations 5:13 -16 For you have been called to live in freedom my brothers and sisters. But don't use your freedom to satisfy your sinful nature. Instead, use your freedom to serve one another in love. For the whole law can be summed up in this one command: "Love your neighbour as yourself."

My eldest son who was a football referee once said that a referee isn't there to make the right decision, he is there to make a decision, whether right or wrong, because of the need to have structures and boundaries in football. We can extend this into the way we live our lives. At the moment many of us may feel the structures and boundaries imposed because of Covid, are simply unfair. We need to carry on playing the game as best we can. The complete freedom of the sort we covet may lead to a blind alley of unhappiness. We are happiest when we have a purpose and one of the ways we can have a purpose is to serve others. Whatever our restrictions, perfect freedom and happiness come from serving Christ and others.

Sunday Services and Private Prayer

We just about fitted everyone in at Rev. Roy's inspiring service, before lockdown.

Because of the lockdown the church and grounds are not open for in - person services (except funerals) until Thursday 3rd December. The church is also closed to community groups. However the church is open for private prayer from 10 : 00am – 11:00am weekdays.

A LETTER FROM SUE MORGAN (CHURCH WARDEN)
ALL SAINTS CHURCH DEDWORTH.

Dear Parishoners,

I am writing to let you know that the current Covid regulations mean that we are NOT allowed to hold any worship services in church or out in the garden until further notice. However, the church WILL be open for private prayer between 10-11am on Monday through to Friday, and I WILL be there during that hour if you need anything.

The Hub will continue to operate as normal and Sunday services will be delivered by technology as we did before. For those who do not have technology I suggest picking up your Bibles and reading the book of Psalms. There is much of value contained in that great book.

If you need me and want to speak, you can ring me on 07752 479624 or email me at sue@fountainschoolofmusic.co.uk

Don't be afraid – God is still in control. He will give us his blessing.
Stay safe.

Love from Sue.

A New Pattern for Online Services

The church is not open for adults' worship during these sessions.

Please register before the day with Sue Morgan or Michelle Sturgeon for Track and Trace purposes.

Youth Gatherings for Youth 11+ years of age

These will be held every Sunday. The next meeting will be on Sunday 22nd November by Zoom from 6:30pm – 8:00pm

A message from Sue Morgan, Church Warden

Dear Parishioners,

I have been grappling with the question of how best to encourage you with God's Word at this time of waiting, particularly those of you who do not like computers and technology. So, I have decided to revert to the old-fashioned way of WRITING to you. Expect to receive a short letter from me from time to time, with a message of hope and encouragement.

God has put the New Testament book of Ephesians very much in my mind at the moment. So, get your Bibles down from the shelf and I will share God's message with you. Call me on 07752 479624 if you cannot see to read your Bible, so I know you need help. If you are able to use technology, I will ask John to put it on the website for you. Praying God's blessing on you at this time.

Keep safe.

Love from Sue (Morgan).

Bible Study: 7:30pm - 8:30pm on Tuesday, 24th November by Zoom. Isaiah

Analysed

Our next Bible Study will be led by Gwen Strachan and will continue the analysis of Book of Isaiah, following the excellent sharing we have had in the previous 3 sessions. She is using a number of passages in Isaiah to back up a personal story about Messianic Judaism. It will be a time of reflection and discussion.

Contact Sue Morgan for more details.

Christmas Craft Market Saturday 5th December

Christmas is coming, and so is our Christmas Market. We're planning to gather in the items that you have made on Saturday, 5th December (subject to Covid restrictions) and then to sell the items the following week. Please let Sue Morgan know what you are offering for sale and attach a label on which you have written a guide price for the item. We are happy to accept all items that you have been working on during this time of enforced lockdown to raise money to keep our church going through these difficult times. We will take pictures of the best entries and have a competition!

Virtual Advent Calendar

This Christmas, All Saints' Dedworth will be taking part in a Windsor wide project initiated by St Andrew's Clewer Church, with the 'Churches Together in Windsor' team. We will be helping to make a virtual Advent calendar. Each church in Windsor will 'make' their own windows combining crafting, singing dancing and drama.

All Saints Dedworth has not been active in 'Churches Together in Windsor' for many years, having focussed our activities primarily on West Windsor. The PCC have decided to re-engaging with the team, with Sue Morgan and Ken Kilner, our Church Wardens as our official links. Many of you will have taken part in and enjoyed 'Carols on the Hill at Windsor Castle'. This is one of the major events organised by 'Churches Together in Windsor'.

A Christmas Cracker: Our Christmas Show for Schools

Undeterred by Covid restrictions, Ruth and her team are busy recording a show to be transmitted by YouTube to our local schools, encapsulating the message of Christmas with a play. It will also be a backdrop to the wonderful moments for the children, when they light their Christingles in the gloom in their schools.

An unexpected bonus is the widespread participation this year of several Church families who are helping to record extracts of the play in their homes. John Sturgeon will be editing the final result. Fortunately, on Sunday, 20th December on the YouTube service, we will all have the chance to see the final results of the hard work and imagination that has gone into this important project to bring the light of Jesus into schools.

Vicar Recruitment Update: Section 11 Meeting

We held our "Section 11" meeting on Tuesday, 17th November attended by the PCC and Sally Lynch, Assistant Area Dean. During the meeting we decided out of the many suitable candidates, that Paul Watkins and John Sturgeon would be our Parish Representatives. They will sift through applications, interview the candidates on our behalf, along with the Archdeacon and Area Dean. Each has power of veto. We thank these busy people very much for taking on this responsibility and ask for your prayers as they make decisions.

Paul Watkins

Web Master
& AV Technologist

A copy of the latest draft of the Parish Profile, the Person Description and Official Role Description needed to advertise the post of Vicar at All Saints' Dedworth, has been sent to Rhodri Bowen, Parish Development Advisor, for his approval. This can be viewed on <https://allsaintschurchdedworth.com/parish-profile/> Please send Andrew Giles your feedback.

We are now awaiting a date for the "Section 12" meeting when we are visited by the Archdeacon to finalise our advertising and recruitment strategy. We hope this will be in the coming few weeks so that we can attract candidates and set a date for the selection day in the New Year. We hope to invite members of the congregation to attend in person or virtually.

Zoom Chat Meetings

Building Update

Regarding the burglaries, we are finalising our decisions with our insurers about which items to replace on a like for like basis and which to accept an in lieu cash figure. In the meantime, Adam Parsonage has been hard at work fixing new locks to the café door and it is now complete. Mike and Krisztina Brooks are arranging for a coat of paint colour matched to the previous blue to be delivered shortly.

On the 31st October several of the men got together (socially distanced) to start to fit the security cameras by installing the cabling. They achieved considerable success before the rains came and then many pastries and doughnuts were eaten!

In the top picture everyone is pretending to understand exactly what John Sturgeon is proposing – except Ken!

The men decided that they could go one better than Sue and do outdoor services from the roof! Pictured are Mike Brooks, Brian Johnson, Ken Kilner, Mike Smith, John Sturgeon and Paul Venter Brian was absolutely determined to finish screwing on the CCTV warning signs and came back the day before lockdown to fix them in the gathering gloom!

To everyone at All Saints Church,

thank you

We would just like to say a huge thank you for the generous gift we received just before we left. It was so kind of you. It would be lovely after lockdown is over, to come and say a proper goodbye sending our love and prayers to you all,

Nigel & Rosie

A Message from Rev Nigel

We received this message from Nigel a few months ago and he wanted it read out live to both services. This has not been possible for the second service yet, so rather than do it online, we are reproducing it for everyone as a photo. Nigel is finding the restrictions as challenging as we are, but the whole family is fine and he sends his love to you all.

West Windsor Hub

Opening times have changed! Due to a shifting pattern of demand, the Hub is now open Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays 10:00am – 2:00pm. We may open on Mondays in emergencies.

While the new lockdown is not good news, we were incredibly pleased to welcome Jackie Holton back, as her charity shop has closed for the 4-week period. At the last Hub meeting of Trustees, we decided to give Christmas food hampers for all the 20 -30 or so families who regularly receive food parcels. In addition, the 45 children who are part of these families will receive individual Christmas stockings

We have been continuing with our regular work of 9 shopping lists, 9 food parcels, 5 Foodshare referrals and 5 prescriptions a week. Since the lockdown, the number of shopping requests is rising. Our aim is to supply short term relief for families. We do not turn people away but do signpost them to other sources of help, such as FoodShare for long term needs.

We need more volunteers, so if you can devote some time to helping us at the cutting edge of meeting the needs of the community in Dedworth, please ring the Hub help number 01753 342110
