Jesus Comforts His Disciples "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going." Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?" Jesus answered "I am the way and the truth and the life. No-one comes to the Father except through me."

Romans 8 : 38-39 - Esther Carter

"For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Dearest Lord,
teach me to be generous;
teach me to serve You as You deserve;
to give and not to count the cost,
to fight and not to heed the wounds,
to toil and not to seek for rest,
to labour and not to ask for reward
save that of knowing I am doing Your will.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy Name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

Committal - Rev. Louise Brown

Leaving Song - 'This Train is Bound for Glory' composed by Sister Rosetta Tharpe performed by Johnny Cash

Tributes

From those unable to attend in person.

“Colin was quite simply one of the best!”

“I watched at times in open-mouthed amazement at the care, concern and willingness to run around and help anyone suffering....also with his work with the homeless Colin simply had a heart to serve. More than anything else though, I’m going to really miss his laughter!”

“Colin was one of the kindest men I have ever met, he really was a true gentleman, I shall miss his lovely smile and great laugh. Colin was a brilliant Steward at St. Georges Chapel, he really knew his stuff and had a great rapport with both the visitors (especially the children on his School Tours) and with his fellow Stewards; his love of history and the Chapel really came through, he was a really dedicated member of the Guild of Stewards. It was a real privilege to have worked with him and he will be much missed by both myself, the Chapel Staff and his fellow volunteers.”

“I will always remember how kind he was to all his friends and colleagues, his laughter and humour really made our day, especially when 10,000 visitors descended on the Castle in summer!”

“Whenever I think of Colin it brings a smile to my face. He was such a lovely man and I was so privileged to have worked with him for those few years at ‘Interserve’. He looked after supporters and partners with such care and love - proving that the practicalities of getting the money stuff right alongside a smile and a joke really made all the difference.”

Colin loved vintage Buses and Steam Trains - in recent years he enjoyed painting and this was the last one which he finished February 2021 .
